

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

After analyzing the data the researcher makes conclusion from this research. Every slang word has its own meaning. Slang words are the informality of language in different situations, but mostly they are used in informal situations, so singers often use slang in their songs. Slang in song lyrics is also a form of communication, the singer can deliver the message to the listeners.

5.1.1 Types of slang words that use by Bruno Mars lyrics of song

In types of slang the researcher can conclude that the researcher analyzed this study based on George Yule's book (2010) on types of slang and there are twelve types of slang. But in Bruno Mars's song the researcher just found five slang words in the lyrics: Blending, clipping, coinage, acronym, and Borrowing. The examples of slang words that the researcher found in this research are: Ain't (are not), cus (because), Shoulda (should have), Yo'll (you all), till (until), gimme (give+me) and others. The researcher used descriptive qualitative analysis because this method uses analyzing, discussing, and finding slang words.

This research was used word or phrase in analysis rather than a numeral number that is why this study uses descriptive. For answering the statement problem number one the researcher used this method. After analyzing the data the researcher can conclude the total of blending (66%), clipping (93%), acronym (26%), coinage (53%) and borrowing (6,6%).

5.1.2 Dominat slang word used of Bruno Mars lyrics of song

The most dominant song that the researcher found in The Lazy Song, and the most dominant slang word in Bruno Mars lyrics is clipping, because clipping occur when a word or more than one syllable is reduced to a shorter form. In the research, the clipping word that mostly appear in the lyrics is word "cause" or "cuz". For example a lyrics cause is "cause today I'm swear I'm not doing anything". The term "cause" or "cuz" is considered as a clipped word because originally it comes from word "because" which is reduced to shorter form "cuz",

5.2 Suggestion

Slang is interesting to learn and analyze especially in songs lyrics. Slang become a part of daily conversation. Nowadays people prefer to use slang in conversation especially for young people. Slang words also have a positive impact that with the slang people, especially teenagers become more creative.

The researcher suggest to anyone who interest in hearing Bruno Mars's songs that this analyze can help them to understand the meaning of slang in Bruno Mars's songs.

The next suggestion is for those who are interest to have a further research in slang, it is suggested to observe a different media, not only using song lyric but it can be between adults and childrens, friends or others. So it can show different result.
